

Baffin Traverse...

Lecture by John Dunn

Click here for images

Newly digitized from its original large slide format. John tells the story of his team's pioneering human-powered traverse of Canada's incredible Baffin Island

a celebration of wilderness and adventure

"One of the finest lectures we have had here in many years. Your delivery was perfect: just the right amount of information, humour, excitement & modesty. Your photographs were really superb."
Dr. John Hemming, Director Royal Geographical Society

jdunn@arcticlight.com
www.arcticlight.com

...a 3,000 km skiing, kayaking and hiking expedition

* John's images from this expedition were featured in National Geographic Magazine, and this lecture was part of the Society's Quest for Adventure Series